Regional High School Athletic Training Program

PEOPLE

Athletic trainers are certified and licensed sports medicine health care professionals. Areas of expertise include: recognize and evaluate injuries, develop rehabilitation plans for injured athletes, implement preventative programs through clinics, provide first aid and emergency care.

PROGRAM

Pullman Regional Hospital's Orthopedic Center of Excellence has partnered with Colton, Garfield-Palouse, Potlatch and Pullman school districts to provide Certified Athletic Trainers at each school and serve more than 750 kids. They partner with physicians and surgeons to fast-track care.

IMPACT

Care is provided at no additional cost to schools or parents. Below are treatment totals and value of free care for each school year.

2017-18:	10,000
2018-19:	14,000	($402,982)
