

Job description: Orthopedic Surgeon, Adult Reconstruction

Inland Orthopaedic Surgery and Sports Medicine Clinic in Pullman, Washington is seeking an energetic, forward-thinking, board certified or board eligible Orthopedic Surgeon to join our current practice of four established surgeons. Fellowship training in Adult Reconstruction is required. Focus will be primary and revision of hip and knee arthroplasty

This physician owned group has been providing Orthopedic care on the Palouse since 1990 in both Pullman, WA and Moscow, ID. All are certified by The American Board of Orthopaedic Surgeons. This practice supports Sports Medicine for Washington State University and the University of Idaho. These two universities are 8 miles apart and the practice maintains offices in both communities and a surgery center in Moscow.

Job Specifics

- Join a well-established team of physicians and advanced practice clinicians in the Pacific Northwest
- $540,000 annually plus incentives
- Partnership opportunity after one year
- Full benefits with sign on bonus, relocation assistance and loan repayment available
- EPIC EMR
- Clinic hours 8 – 5 pm Monday -Friday
- 32 patient facing hours per week
- Call 1:4; includes general orthopedic call
- Hospitalist program assists with limited rounding needs
- Five hospital ORs plus surgery center
- PA and ATC assistance
- Fellowship trained sports medicine family medicine physician available for assistance with non-operative care
- Opportunity to work with medical students and residents,
- Collegiate athletic program involvement if desired
- Future leadership role possible

Job Requirements

- MD or DO licensure in Washington and Idaho
- Board Certified/Board Eligible in Orthopedics with fellowship training in Adult Reconstruction.

- Excellent clinical skills, communication skills, and a strong commitment to providing excellent care that is team oriented.

Community Profile

Pullman, Washington is a vibrant community located in the Palouse region of eastern Washington. Home to Washington State University and 8 miles west of the University of Idaho in Moscow, Idaho, Pullman offers big-city amenities coupled with small town charm. Residents enjoy excellent schools, safe neighborhoods, sporting events, a downtown filled with locally-owned businesses, and a plethora of outdoor activities including hiking, biking, fishing, hunting, camping, and water sports on the nearby Snake River. Familiar shopping and dining options include Starbucks, Chipotle, Target, Walmart, Safeway, Marshall's, and a variety of retail options at the Palouse Mall in Moscow, Idaho.

Getting to and from Pullman is easy through the Pullman-Moscow Regional Airport with daily flights to Seattle and Boise. Lewiston (34 miles away) offers daily flights to Salt Lake City and Denver, and Spokane International Airport (80 miles away) boasts flights to 19 non-stop destinations, including Atlanta, Denver, Salt Lake City, Los Angeles, Phoenix, and Chicago