

Looking for a new provider?

We've got you covered!

BEN ADKINS, M.D., FAFAP

Dr. Adkins has been providing family medicine with obstetric care since 2004. He was recognized as an outstanding upcoming family physician by the American Academy of Family Physicians and enjoys teaching patients how to improve health through lifestyle.

LAURA BAKER, M.D.

Dr. Baker believes that caring for the person as a whole is an important aspect of medicine. As a member of the LGBTQ+ community, Dr. Baker understands the hurdles and barriers that can arise for receiving care in the medical field. Her goal is to be as personable and supportive as possible to help her patients meet their health journey goals.

JENNIFER DAVIS, PA-C

Jen Davis believes her windy path to becoming a PA-C helped shape her as a healthcare professional. She enjoys working with people of all ages on a personal level. Jen provides patients the support and guidance that is required to lead a healthy lifestyle and work towards their personal goals.

KIM GUIDA, M.D., FAFAP

Dr. Guida feels that everyone has a fundamental right to health care. Her goal is to provide guidance, advice, and treatment based on current medical evidence, and to help her patients attain and maintain the best possible state of health. Dr. Guida is currently not accepting new patients.

TERESA CARGILL, PA-C

Teresa Cargill chose Family Medicine because she wants to help people lead healthy productive lives regardless of age, gender, or ailment. As a PA-C, she treats her patients, not just their individual symptoms. Teresa's goal has always been to be an empathetic and understanding provider.
